REGISTRATION OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Registrar.

3. (1) The State Government may appoint a person to be Registrar of Co-operative Societies for the State and may appoint other persons to assist him.

(2) The State Government may, by general or special order, confer on any person appointed to assist the Registrar all or any of the powers of the Registrar under this Act.

(3) Every person appointed to assist the Registrar shall exercise the powers conferred on him under sub-section (2) subject to the general guidance, superintendence and control of the Registrar.

Societies which may be registered.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and any rules framed thereunder, a co-operative society which has, as its objects, the promotion of the economic interest or general welfare of its members or the public in accordance with the co-operative principles, or a co-operative society established with the object of facilitating the operations of such a society, including a society formed by the division of any existing co-operative society or amalgamation of existing co-operative societies, may be registered under this Act.

Registration with limited or unlimited liability.

5. (1) A co-operative society may be registered with or without limited liability:

Provided that—

- (i) the liability of a co-operative society of which any member is a co-operative society shall be limited; and
- (ii) no co-operative society shall be registered as a society with unlimited liability if, amongst its objects, it also includes any object other than the advancement of loans to its members.

(2) The word 'limited' or its equivalent in any Indian language shall be the last word in the name of co-operative society registered or deemed to be registered under this Act with limited liability.

Restrictions on holding of shares.

6. In any co-operative society, no member other than the State Government or any other co-operative society shall—

- (a) hold more than such portion of the total share capital of the society not exceeding one-fifth thereof as may be prescribed, or
- (b) have or claim any interest in the shares of such society exceeding ten thousand rupees;

Provided that the State Government may, by notification in Official Gazette, specify, in respect of any class of co-operative societies, a higher maximum than one-fifth of the share capital or a higher amount than ten thousand rupees, as the case may be.

Application for registration.

7. (1) An application for the registration of a co-operative society shall be made to the Registrar in such form as may be prescribed and the applicants shall furnish to him all such information about the society as he may require.

(2) Every such application shall conform to the following:—

- (a) the application shall be accompanied by three copies of the bye-laws of the co-operative society;
- (b) where all the applicants are individuals, the number of applicants shall not be less than ten each of such persons being a member of a different family and competent to contract under section 11 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, and where all the applicants are not individuals, the number of such applicants shall not be less than five;
- (c) every one of the applicants who is an individual shall be above the age of 18 years; and
- (d) where the objects of the co-operative society include the creation of funds to be lent to its members and where all the applicants are individuals, the applicants shall reside in the same town or village or in the same group of villages, or belong to the same class or pursue the same occupation.

(3) The application shall be signed—

- (a) in the case of a society of which no member is a co-operative society, by all individuals as qualified in accordance with the requirements of clause (b) and clause (c) of sub-section (2); and
- (b) in the case of a society of which a member is a society, by a duly authorised person on behalf of every such society, and where all the members of the society are not societies, by all other members.

Registration.

8. (1) If the Registrar is satisfied—

- (a) that the application complies with the provisions of this Act and the rules;
- (b) that the aims of the proposed society are in accordance with section 4;
- (c) that the aims of the proposed society are not inconsistent with the principles of social justice;
- (d) that the proposed bye-laws are not contrary to the provisions of this Act and the rules; and
- (e) that the proposed society has reasonable chances of success;

he may register the society and its bye-laws.

(2) The application for registration shall be disposed of by the Registrar within a period of 4 months from the date of receipt thereof by him.

(3) If the Registrar fails to dispose of the application within the period specified in sub-section (2), the applicant society shall be deemed to have been registered.

(4) When the Registrar refuses to register a society, he shall communicate the order of refusal, together with the reasons therefor to such of the applicants as may be prescribed.

Evidence of registration.

9. Where a co-operative society is registered under this Act or is deemed to have been registered under sub-section (3) of section 8, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration signed by him, which shall be conclusive evidence that the society therein mentioned is a society duly registered under this Act, unless it is proved that the registration has been cancelled.

Societies to be bodies corporate.

10. The registration of a co-operative society shall render it a body corporate by the name under which it is registered having perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to hold property, enter into contracts, institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings and to do all things necessary for the purposes for which it is constituted.

Amendment of bye-laws of a co-operative society.

11. (1) No amendment of any bye-law of a co-operative society shall be valid unless approved by the resolution of a general meeting and registered under this Act for which purpose three copies of the amendment shall be forwarded to the Registrar as prescribed.

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the proposed amendment—

- (i) is not contrary to the provisions of this Act and the rules,
- (ii) does not conflict with co-operative principles,
- (iii) will permit the economic interest of the members of the society,
- (iv) is not inconsistent with the principles of social justice, he may register the amendment.

(3) When the Registrar registers an amendment, he shall forward to the society a copy of the registered amendment together with a certificate signed by him and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the amendment has been duly registered.

(4) Where the Registrar refuses to register an amendment of the bye-laws, of a co-operative society, he shall communicate the order of refusal together with the reasons therefor to the society.

(5) An amendment of the bye-laws of a co-operative society shall, unless it is expressed to come into operation on a particular day, come into force on the day on which it is registered.

Powers of the Registrar to direct amendment of bye-laws.

12. (1) If it appears to the Registrar that an amendment of the bye-laws of a society is necessary or desirable in the interest of the society, he may call upon the society, in the manner prescribed, to make amendment within such time as he may specify.

(2) If the society fails to make the amendment within the time specified, the Registrar may, after giving the society an opportunity of being heard, register such amendment and issue the society a copy of such amendment, certified by him. With effect from the date of the registration of the amendment in the manner aforesaid, the bye-laws shall be deemed to have been duly amended accordingly and the bye-laws as amended shall, subject to an appeal (if any), be binding on the society and its members.

Change of name and its effect.

13. (1) A co-operative society may, by an amendment of its bye-laws, change its name.

(2) Where a co-operative society changes its name, the Registrar shall enter the new name on the register of co-operative societies in the place of the former name and shall amend the certificate of registration accordingly.

(3) The change of name of a co-operative society shall not affect any rights or obligations of the co-operative society, or of any of its members or past members or deceased members; and any legal proceedings pending may be continued by or against the society under its new name.

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules, a co-operative society may, by an amendment of its bye-laws, change the form or extent of its liability. Change of liability.

(2) When a co-operative society has passed a resolution to change the form or extent of its liability, it shall give notice thereof in writing to all its members and creditors and notwithstanding any bye-law or contract to the contrary, any member or creditor shall, during a period of 3 months from the date of service of the notice upon him, have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans, as the case may be.

(3) Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period specified in sub-section (2) shall be deemed to have assented to the change.

(4) An amendment of a bye-law of a co-operative society changing the form or extent of its liability shall not be registered or take effect until, either—

- (a) the assent thereto of all members and creditors has been obtained, or
- (b) all claims of members and creditors who exercise the option referred to in sub-section (2) within the period specified therein have been met in full.

15. (1) A co-operative society may, with the previous approval of the Registrar and by resolution passed by a three-fourth majority of the members present and voting at a special general meeting of the society—

Amalgamation, transfer of assets and liabilities, conversion and division of societies.

- (a) transfer its assets and liabilities in whole or in part to any other society;
- (b) divide itself into two or more co-operative societies and form as such new societies;
- (c) convert itself into any other class of society and form as such a new class of society.

(2) Any two or more co-operative societies may, with the previous approval of the Registrar and by a resolution passed by a three-fourth majority of the members present and voting at a special general meeting of each such society, amalgamate themselves and form a new society.

(3) The resolution of a co-operative society under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall contain all particulars of the transfer, division, conversion or amalgamation, as the case may be.

(4) When a co-operative society has passed any such resolution, it shall give notice thereof in writing to all its members and creditors and, notwithstanding any bye-laws or contract to the contrary, any member or creditor shall during the period of three months of the date of service of the notice upon him, have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans, as the case may be.

(5) Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period specified in sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have assented in the resolution.

(6) A resolution passed by a co-operative society under this section shall not take effect until, either—

- (a) the assent thereto of all the members and creditors has been obtained, or
- (b) all claims of members and creditors who exercise the option referred to in sub-section (4) within the period specified therein, have been met in full.

(7) When a resolution passed by a society under this section involves transfer of any assets and liabilities, the resolution shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, be sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities in the transfer without any further assurance.

Power to direct amalgamation, division, conversion and transfer of assets in public interest, etc.

16. (1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that it is essential in the public interest, or in the interest of the co-operative movement, or for the purpose of securing the proper management of any society that two or more societies should amalgamate to form a new society or any society should be divided to form two or more new societies, or should be converted into any other class of society or that any society should transfer its assets and liabilities in whole or in part to any other society, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section but subject to the provisions of this section, the Registrar may order the amalgamation or division or conversion or transfer of assets and liabilities of these societies or society, as the case may be, and with such constitution, property, rights, interests and authorities and such liabilities, duties and obligations, as may be specified in the order.

(2) No order shall be made under this section unless—

- (a) a copy of the proposed order has been sent in draft to the society or each of the societies concerned;
- (b) the Registrar has considered and made such modifications in the draft order as may seem to him desirable in the light of any suggestions and objections which may be received by him within such period (not being less than 2 months from the date on which the copy of the order as aforesaid was received by the society) as the Registrar may in that behalf, either from the society or from any member or class of members thereof, or from any creditor or class of creditors.

(3) The order referred to in sub-section (1) may contain such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be necessary to give effect to the amalgamation, the division, the conversion or the transfer of assets and liabilities as the case may be.

(4) Every member or creditor of each of the societies to be amalgamated, divided or converted or the transfer of assets and liabilities of which have been ordered to be transferred, who has objected to the scheme of such amalgamation or division or conversion or transfer, as the case may be, within the period specified, shall be entitled to receive on the issue of the order of amalgamation, division, conversion or transfer, his share or interest if he be a member, and amount in satisfaction of his dues if he be a creditor.

(5) On the issue of an order under sub-section (1), the provisions of sub-sections (4) to (7) of section 15 shall apply to the societies or society so amalgamated, divided or converted under that section.

Cancellation of registration certificate of co-operative societies in certain cases.

17. (1) When the whole of the assets and liabilities of a co-operative society are transferred to another society in accordance with the provisions of sections 15 and 16, the registration of the first mentioned society shall stand cancelled and that society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

(2) When two or more co-operative societies are amalgamated into a new co-operative society in accordance with the provisions of sections 15 and 16, the registration of each of the amalgamating societies shall stand cancelled on the registration of the new society and each such society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

(3) Where a society divides itself into two or more societies in accordance with the provisions of sections 15 and 16, the registration of that society shall stand cancelled on the registration of new societies and that society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

(4) When a co-operative society is converted from one class to another in accordance with sections 15 and 16, the registration of the first mentioned class of society shall stand cancelled and society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

18. (1) Any two or more societies may, with the prior approval of the Registrar, by resolution passed by three-fourth majority of the members present and voting at a special general meeting of each such society, enter into partnership for carrying out any specific business or businesses, provided that each member has had clear ten days' written notice of the date of the meeting.

Partnership of societies.

(2) Nothing in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932, shall apply to such partnership.

CHAPTER III

MEMBERS OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES AND THEIR RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES

19. No person shall be admitted to membership of a co-operative society except the following, namely,—

Persons who may become members.

- (a) an individual competent to contract under section 11 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- (b) any other registered society (except a society under liquidation proceedings);
- (c) State Government; and
- (d) such class or classes of persons or associations of persons as may be notified by the State Government in this behalf.

20. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (d) of section 19, a society may also have the following kinds of members:—

Nominal or associate members.

- (a) nominal members; and
- (b) associate members.

(2) (a) A person with whom the co-operative society has or proposes to have business dealings may be admitted as a nominal member.

(b) In the school stores or any other such societies, a minor may be admitted as an associate member.

(c) A nominal or an associate member shall have no right to share in the profits of the society, nor shall be eligible for the membership of the committee.

(3) Save as provided in this section, a nominal or an associate member shall have such privileges and rights of a member, as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society.

21. No member of a society shall exercise the rights of a member unless he has made such payments to the society in respect of membership or has acquired such interest in the society as may be prescribed by the rules or the bye-laws of such society.

Members not to exercise rights till due payment made.

22. Every member of a society shall have one vote, in the affairs of a society:

Votes of members.

Provided that—

- (a) nominal or associate member shall not have right of vote;
- (b) in the case of equality of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote;

- (c) where the Government is a member of the society, each person nominated by the Government on the committee shall have one vote;
- (d) where a share of a society is held jointly by more than one person, only the person whose name stands first in the share certificate and in its absence, in the member register shall have the right to cast one vote; and
- (e) save as otherwise provided in the bye-laws, a minor to whom the share of a deceased member is transferred under section 25 shall not be entitled to vote.

Manner of exercising vote.

23. (1) Every member of a society shall exercise his vote in person and no member shall be permitted to vote by proxy.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the society which is a member of another society, may appoint such number of its members as may be prescribed, to vote in the affairs of such other society.

Restrictions on transfer of shares or interest.

24. (1) The transfer of a share or interest in the capital of a society shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions, as to the maximum holding as are specified in section 6.

(2) A member shall not transfer any share held by him or his interest in the capital or property of any society or any part thereof unless—

- (a) he has held such share or interest for not less than one year;
- (b) the transfer is made to the society or to a member of the society or to a person whose application for membership has been accepted by the society; and
- (c) the committee has approved such transfer.

Transfer of interest on death of a member.

25. (1) On the death of a member of a society, the society shall transfer the share or interest of the deceased member to a person or persons nominated in accordance with rules, or if no person has been nominated, to such person as may appear to the committee to be the heir or legal representative of the deceased member:

Provided that such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be, is admitted as a member of the society:

Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent a minor or a person of unsound mind from acquiring by inheritance or otherwise the share or interest of a deceased member in a co-operative society.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), any such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be, may require the society to pay to him the value of the share or interest of the deceased member ascertained in accordance with the rules.

(3) A society may pay all other moneys due to the deceased member from the society to such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be.

(4) All transfers and payments made by a society in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the society by any other person.

Disposal of share or interest of expelled, resigned or insane member.

26. When a member of a society is expelled or resigns in accordance with the rules or the bye-laws, or when a member becomes insane,—

- (a) his share or interest shall be transferred to another person qualified to be the transferee in accordance with the provisions of section 24, and the value thereof determined in accordance with the rules, shall be paid to such member or, if he is insane, to any person appointed to manage his properties under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912; or

(b) in case of a society with unlimited liability, if the bye-laws so provide, the value of his share or interest determined in accordance with the rules, shall be paid to him, or, if he is insane, to any person appointed to manage his properties under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912.

(a) in case of a past member, on the date on which he ceased to be a member;

(b) in the case of a deceased member on the date of his death; shall continue for a period of two years from such date.

(2) Where a co-operative society is ordered to be wound up under section 79, the liability of a past member or of the estate of deceased member who ceased to be a member or died within 2 years, immediately preceding the date on which the order of winding up takes effect, shall continue until the entire liquidation proceedings are completed, but such liability shall extend only to the debts of the society as they existed on the date of his ceasing to be a member or death, as the case may be.

Members to furnish information as to their financial position and alienation of their immovable property.

32. (1) A full, true and accurate statement of his assets and liabilities shall be furnished—

- (a) by an applicant for membership of a society with unlimited liability, with his application;
- (b) by a member of a society with unlimited liability when required to do so by the Registrar or any person authorised by him by a general or special order or by the financing bank; and
- (c) by a member of any other society, with an application for a loan or for acceptance as a surety.

(2) A member of a society shall, before the completion of each such transaction, furnish to the society of which he is a member, full, true and accurate information regarding any sale, mortgage, or transfer in any form whatsoever of his immovable property or any portion or share thereof and regarding any debt proposed to be incurred on the security of such property.

CHAPTER IV

MANAGEMENT OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Final authority in co-operative society.

33. (1) The final authority in co-operative society shall vest in the general body of members in a general meeting:

Provided that where the bye-laws of a co-operative society provide for the constitution of a smaller body consisting of delegates of members of the society elected or selected in accordance with such bye-laws, the smaller body shall exercise such powers of the general body as may be prescribed or as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society:

Provided further that nothing in this section shall affect any powers conferred on a committee or any officer of a co-operative society by the rules or the bye-laws.

Annual general meeting.

34. (1) A general meeting of every society shall be held once at least in every co-operative year for the purpose of—

- (a) approval of the programme of activities of the society prepared by the committee for the ensuing year;
- (b) election, if any, in the prescribed manner of the members of the committee other than the nominated members;
- (c) consideration of the audit report and the annual report;
- (d) disposal of the net profits; and
- (e) consideration of any other matter which may be brought forward in accordance with the bye-laws.

(2) Such meeting shall be held not more than 15 months after the date of the last preceding meeting held under sub-section (1):

Provided that the Registrar may, by general or special order, extend the period for holding such meeting for a further period not exceeding three months:

Provided further that if, in the opinion of the Registrar, no such extension is necessary, or if such meeting is not called by the society within the extended period (if any) granted by him, the Registrar or any person authorised by him may call such meeting in the manner prescribed and that meeting shall be deemed to be general meeting duly called by the society; and the Registrar may order that the expenditure incurred in calling such a meeting shall be paid out of the funds of the society or by such person or persons who, in the opinion of the Registrar, were responsible for the refusal or failure to convene the general meeting.

35. (1) A special general meeting may be called at any time by the President or by a majority of the members of a committee, and shall be called within one month—

Special general meeting.

(a) on a requisition in writing of one-fifth of the members of a society or of members, the number of which is specified in the bye-laws for the purpose, whichever is lower, or

(b) at the instance of the Registrar, or

(c) in the case of a society, which is a member of a federal society, at the instance of the committee of such federal society.

(2) Where any officer or a member of the committee, whose duty it was to call such meeting, without reasonable excuse, fails to call such meeting, the Registrar may, by order, declare such officer or member disqualified for being a member of the committee for such period not exceeding three years, as he may specify in such order; and if the officer is a servant of the society, he may impose on him a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees. Before making an order under this sub-section, the Registrar shall give or cause to be given, a reasonable opportunity to the person concerned of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken in regard to him.

(3) If a special general meeting of a society is not called in accordance with the requisition referred to in sub-section (1), the Registrar or any person authorised by him in this behalf, shall have power to call such meeting, and that meeting shall be deemed to be a meeting duly called by the committee.

(4) The Registrar shall have power to order that the expenditure incurred in calling a meeting under sub-section (3) shall be paid out of the funds of the society or by such person or persons who, in the opinion of the Registrar, were responsible for the refusal or failure to convene the meeting.

36. The management of every society shall vest in a managing committee constituted in accordance with the rules and the bye-laws, which shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be conferred or imposed respectively, by this Act, the rules and the bye-laws.

Managing committee.

37. (1) Where the State Government—

(a) has subscribed to the share capital of a co-operative society; or

(b) has assisted indirectly in the formation or augmentation of the share capital of a co-operative society as provided under section 50; or

(c) has guaranteed the repayment of principal and payment of interest on loans and advances to a society;

the State Government or any authority specified by the State Government in this behalf shall have the right to nominate not more than three members or one-third of the total number of members of the committee of the society whichever is less.

(2) A member nominated on the committee of a co-operative society under sub-section (1) shall hold office during the pleasure of the State Government or the specified authority, as the case may be.

(3) Where in a co-operative society in which shares have been subscribed or liability by way of guarantee for borrowing exceeding fifty per centum of the working capital of the society has been undertaken by the Government, a difference of opinion in respect of any matter arises between the nominated members of the committee and other members thereof, the matter shall be referred by the committee to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final and will operate as if the same were a decision taken by the committee.

Nominees of the Government on the committee of co-operative society.

Powers to depute Government servant to manage affairs of a co-operative
society.

38. The State Government may, on the application of a society and on such conditions as may be prescribed, depute a Government servant to the service of the society for the purpose of managing its affairs and the Government servant so deputed shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed.

Supersession
tee.

39. (1) If, in the opinion of the Registrar, the committee of any society or any member of such committee persistently makes default, or is negligent in the performance of the duties imposed on it or him by this Act or the rules or the bye-laws, or commits any act which is prejudicial to the interests of the society or its members, or wilfully disobeys directions issued by the Registrar for the purpose of securing the proper implementation of co-operative production and other development programmes approved or undertaken by the Government, the Registrar may after giving the committee or the member, as the case may be, an opportunity of stating its or his objections (if any) within fifteen days from the date of issue of notice, by order in writing—

(a) remove the committee, and—

- (i) order fresh elections of the committee and may for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, order that all or any of the members of the outgoing committee, shall, for such period not exceeding three years as he may determine, be disqualified for an election or appointment as an officer of the society; or
- (ii) appoint one or more administrators who need not be members of the society, to manage the affairs of the society for a period not exceeding one year, specified in the order, which period may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be extended from time to time so, however, that the aggregate period does not exceed five years, or

(b) remove the member and appoint any person, as a member of such committee, in his place, for the remainder of the term of office of the member removed.

(2) The committee or administrator so appointed shall, subject to the control of the Registrar and to such instructions as he may, from time to time, give, have power to exercise all or any of the functions of the committee or of any officer of the society and take such actions as may be required in the interest of the society.

(3) The administrator shall at the expiry of his term of office, arrange for the constitution of a new committee in accordance with the bye-laws of the society.

(4) The Registrar may fix any remuneration for the administrator as he may think fit. Such remuneration shall be paid out of the funds of the society.

(5) Before taking any action under sub-section (1) in respect of a society, the Registrar shall consult the financing bank to which the society is indebted.

Securing possession of records.

40. (1)(a) When the Registrar is satisfied that the books and records of a society are likely to be suppressed, tampered with or destroyed or the funds and the property of a society are likely to be mis-appropriated; or

(b) If the committee of a co-operative society is re-constituted at a general meeting of the society, or committee of a society is removed under section 39 or if the society is ordered to be wound up under section 79 and the outgoing members of the committee refuse to hand over the charge of the records and property of the society to the new committee or the administrator or the liquidator as the case may be, the Registrar or the person authorised by him may apply to the magistrate within whose jurisdiction the society is functioning for seizing and taking possession of the records and property of the society.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the magistrate may authorise any police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector to enter and search any place where the records and the property are kept or are believed to be kept and to seize them and hand over the possession thereof to the Registrar, or the new committee or the administrator of the society or the liquidator as the case may be.

CHAPTER V

DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

41. Every co-operative society shall have an address registered in accordance with the rules to which all notices and communications may be sent and shall send notice in writing to the Registrar of any change in address within thirty days of such change. Address of societies.

42. (1) Every member shall be entitled to the services available to the members of the society under the provisions of its bye-laws and such services shall, subject to availability, be rendered to him on his application to the committee. Right of members to services by society and application for redress.

(2) If any member is refused any service or where the decision of the committee, on his application for services, is not communicated to him within a period of thirty days from the date of such application, he may make an application to the Registrar for redress, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the decision of refusal or within sixty days from the date of application to the society, as the case may be.

(3) If the Registrar is satisfied that the refusal of any service is unreasonable, improper or discriminating, he may, after giving the committee an opportunity of making its representation, by order, direct the committee to render the service.

43. Every officer and every member of a society shall furnish such information in regard to the transactions or working of the society as may be required of him by the Registrar or an auditor, arbitrator, liquidator or any person conducting an inspection or enquiry. Liability to furnish information.

CHAPTER VI

PRIVILEGES OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

44. A society shall have a charge upon the share or interest in the capital, and on the deposits of a member or a past member or deceased member and upon any dividend, bonus or profits payable to a member, past member or deceased member in respect of any debt or outstanding demand owing to the co-operative society and the society may set off any sum credited or payable to such member in or towards payment of any such debt: Charges and set off in respect of shares or interest of members.

Provided that no co-operative bank shall have a charge upon any sum invested with it by a society out of the provident fund established by it under section 57 or its reserve fund; and no co-operative bank shall be entitled to set off any such sum towards any debts due from the society.

Register of members.

45. Any register or list of members or shares kept by any registered society shall be prima facie evidence of any of the following particulars entered therein:—

- (a) the date on which the name of a person was entered in such register or list as a member;
- (b) the date on which any such person ceased to be a member.

Proof of entries in society's books.

46. (1) A copy of any entry in a book of a registered society, regularly kept in the course of its business, shall if certified in such manner as may be prescribed, be received in any suit or legal proceedings, as prima facie evidence of the existence of such entry, and shall be admitted, as evidence of the matters, transactions and accounts therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent as, the original entry itself is admissible.

(2) No officer of a society and no officer in whose office the books of a society are deposited after liquidation shall, in any legal proceedings to which the society or the liquidator is not a party, be compelled to produce any of the society's books or documents, the contents of which can be proved under this section, or to appear as a witness to prove the matters, transactions and accounts therein recorded except under the order of the court or the arbitrator made for special cause.

Ex-emption from compulsory registration of instruments.

47. Nothing in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908, shall apply to—

- (1) any instrument relating to share in a society notwithstanding that the assets of the society consist in whole or in part of immovable property; or
- (2) any debenture issued by any such society and not creating, declaring, assigning, limiting or extinguishing any right, title or interest to or in immovable property, except in so far as it entitles the holder thereof to the security afforded by registered instrument whereby the society has mortgaged, conveyed or otherwise transferred the whole or part of its immovable property or any interest therein to trustees upon trust for the benefit of the holders of such debentures; or
- (3) any endorsement upon or transfer of any debenture issued by any such society.

Deduction from salary to meet society's claim in certain cases.

48. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, a member of a society may execute an agreement in favour of the society; providing that his employer shall be competent to deduct from the salary or wages payable to him by the employee, such amount as may be specified in the agreement, and to pay to the society the amount so deducted in satisfaction of any debt or other demand of the society against the member.

(2) On the execution of such agreement, the employer shall, if so required by the society by a requisition in writing, and so long as the society does not intimate that the whole of such debt or demand has been paid, make the deduction in accordance with the agreement and pay the amount so deducted to the society within fourteen days from the date of deduction.

(3) If after the receipt of requisition made under the foregoing sub-section, the employer at any time fails to deduct the amount specified in the requisition from the salary or wages payable to the member concerned, or makes default in remitting the amount deducted, to the society, the employer shall be personally liable for the payment thereof; and the amount shall be recoverable on behalf of the society from him as an arrear of land revenue, and the amount so due shall rank in priority in respect of such liability of the employer as wages in arrears.

49. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force,—

Charge on immovable properties of members borrowing loans from certain societies.

- (i) any person who makes an application to a society of which he is a member for a loan, if he owns any land or has interest in any land as a tenant shall make a declaration in the form prescribed. Such declaration shall state that the applicant thereby creates a charge on such land or interest specified in the declaration for the payment of the amount of the loan which the society may make to the member in pursuance of the application and for all future advances (if any) required by him which the society may make to him as such member subject to such maximum as may be determined by the society together with interest on such amount of the loan and advances;
- (ii) any person who has taken a loan from a society of which he is a member, before the date of coming into force of this Act, and who owns any land or has interest in any land as a tenant and who has not already made such a declaration before the aforesaid date shall, as soon as possible, thereafter, make a declaration in the form and to the effect referred to in clause (i), and no such person shall, unless and until, he has made such declaration, be entitled to exercise any right as a member of the society;
- (iii) a declaration made under clause (i) or (ii) may be varied at any time by a member, with the consent of the society in favour of which such charge is created;
- (iv) no member shall alienate the whole or any part of the land or interest specified in the declaration made under clause (i) or (ii) until the whole amount borrowed by the member together with interest thereon is repaid in full:

Provided that standing crops on any such land may be alienated with the previous permission of the society:

Provided further that if a part of the amount borrowed by a member is paid, the society may, on an application from the member, release from charge created under the declaration made under clause (i) or (ii), such part of the movable or immovable property specified in the said declaration, as it may deem appropriate, with due regard to the security of the balance of the amount remaining outstanding from the member:

Provided further that no charge on land need be created if the amount of loan advanced is less than five hundred rupees and such loans may be allowed to any member on his furnishing two sureties from fellow members, whether the limits prescribed for the purpose are either in the bye-laws of the society or by convention;

- (v) any alienation made in contravention of the provisions of clause (iv) shall be void;
- (vi) subject to the prior claims of the Government in respect of land revenue, there shall be a first charge in favour of the society on the land or interest specified in the declaration made under clause (i) or (ii), for and to the extent of the dues owing by him on account of the loans and advances;
- (vii) the record-of-rights shall include the particulars of every charge on land or interest created under a declaration under clause (i) or (ii). The halka patwari shall note such change in the village records within one week after the receipt of the declaration and shall thereafter return the declaration to the society concerned.

Other forms of State aid to co-operative societies.

50. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Government may,—

- (a) subscribe to the share capital of a co-operative society;
- (b) give loans or make advances to a co-operative society;
- (c) guarantee the repayment of share capital of a co-operative society and dividends thereon at such rates as may be specified by the Government;
- (d) guarantee the repayment of principal and payment of interest on loans and advances to a co-operative society; and
- (e) give financial assistance in any other form, including subsidies to any society.

Limitation.

51. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963, the period of limitation for the institution of a suit to recover any sum including interest thereon due to a society by a member thereof shall be computed from the date on which such member dies or ceases to be a member of the society. 36 of 1963

(2) The provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall not apply to proceedings taken under section 74 of this Act. 36 of 1963

Exemption from certain taxes, fees and duties.

52. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, remit the income-tax payable in respect of the profits of any class of co-operative societies or the dividends or other payments received by members of any class of such societies on account of profits.

(2) The Government may, by notification, remit in respect of any society or class of societies,—

- (a) the stamp duty chargeable under any law for the time being in force in respect of any instrument executed by or on behalf of a co-operative society or by an officer or member thereof and relating to the business of such society or any class of such instruments or in respect of any award or order made under this Act, in cases, where, but for such remission, the co-operative society, officer or member, as the case may be, would be liable to pay such stamp duty;
- (b) any fee payable under any law for the time being in force relating to the registration of documents or court fees.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, “Government” means in relation to stamp duty in respect of bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes, bills of lading, letters of credit, policies of insurance, transfer of shares, debentures, proxies and receipts, the Central Government and save as aforesaid, the State Government.

(3) The Government may, by notification, exempt any society or class of societies from,—

- (a) land revenue;
- (b) taxes on agricultural income;
- (c) taxes on sale or purchase of goods; and
- (d) taxes on profession, trades, callings and employments.

Insolvency of members.

53. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, or any corresponding law for the time being in force, the dues of a society from a member, in insolvency proceedings against him shall rank in order of priority next to the dues payable by him to Government or to a local authority. 5 of 1920

54. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, but subject to any prior claim of the Government, in respect of the land revenue or any money recoverable as land revenue, any debt or outstanding demand owing to a co-operative society by any member or past member or deceased member shall be a first charge upon the crops and other agricultural produce, cattle, fodder for cattle, agricultural or industrial implements or machinery, raw materials for manufacture and any finished products manufactured from such raw materials, belonging to such member, past member or forming a part of the estate of the deceased member, as the case may be.

First charge of co-operative societies on certain assets.

(2) No person shall transfer any property which is subject to a charge under sub-section (1) except with the previous permission in writing of the co-operative society which holds the charge.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, any transfer of property made in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) shall be void.

(4) The charge created under sub-section (1) shall be available as against any claim of the Government arising from a loan granted under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, after the grant of loan by the society.

CHAPTER VII

PROPERTIES AND FUNDS OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

55. (1) A registered society may invest or deposit its funds—

Investment of funds.

- in the post office savings bank; or
- in any of the securities specified in section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882; or
- in the shares or the securities of any other registered society; or
- with any bank or person carrying on the business of banking approved for this purpose by the Registrar; or
- in any other mode permitted by the rules.

2 of 1882

(2) Any investment or deposit made before the commencement of this Act which would have been valid if this Act had been in force are hereby ratified and confirmed.

56. No part of the funds, other than the dividend, equalisation or bonus equalisation funds as may be prescribed or the net profits of a society, shall be paid by way of bonus or dividend, or otherwise distributed among its members:

Funds not to be divided.

Provided that a member may be paid remuneration on such scale as may be laid down by the bye-laws, for any services rendered by him to the society.

57. A society earning profit shall calculate the net profits by deducting from the gross profits for the year, all interest accrued and accruing in accounts which are overdue, establishment charges, interest payable on loans and deposits, audit fee, working expenses including repairs, rent, taxes and depreciation, and after providing for or writing off bad debts and losses not adjusted against any fund created out of profits. A society may, however, add to the net profits for the year, interest accrued in the preceding years, but actually recovered during the year. The net profits thus arrived at, together with the amount of profits brought forward from the previous year, shall be available for appropriation.

Appropriation of profits.

(2) A society may appropriate its net profits to the reserve or any other fund, to payment of dividends to members on their shares, to the contribution to the educational fund of the society which may be notified in this behalf by the Registrar, to the payment of bonus on the basis of support received from members and persons who are not members to its business, to payment of honoraria, provident fund to its employees, and towards any other purpose which may be specified in the rules or bye-laws:

Provided that, no part of the profits shall be appropriated except with the approval of the society in its annual general meeting and in conformity with the Act, rules and bye-laws.

Reserve fund.

58. (1) Every society shall maintain a reserve fund in respect of the profits, if any, derivable from its transactions.

(2) Of the net profits of a society in each year there shall be carried to the reserve fund not less than twenty-five per centum or such higher proportion as may be prescribed for such society or class of societies.

(3) Save to the extent, and in such manner, as may be prescribed, no part of its reserve fund shall be used in the business of a society.

(4) Subject to the rules, any portion of the reserve fund not used in the business of a society shall be invested or deposited,—

(a) in the post office savings bank; or

(b) in any of the securities specified in section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, other than those specified in clause (e) of that section; 2 of 1882 or

(c) in any other bank approved by the Registrar.

Regulation of loan making policy.

59. (1) No society shall make loan to any person other than a member, or on the security of its own shares, or on security of any person who is not a member:

Provided that, with the special sanction of the Registrar, a society may make loans to another society.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-section, a society may make a loan to a depositor on the security of the deposit.

(3) If, in the opinion of the State Government, it is necessary in the interest of the society or societies concerned to do so, the State Government may, by general or special order, prohibit, restrict, or regulate the lending of money by any society or class of societies on the security of any property:

Provided that the Registrar may, for ensuring safety of the funds of the society or societies concerned for proper utilisation of such funds in furtherance of their objects and for keeping them within the loan making limits laid down in the rules and bye-laws, in consultation with the financing bank, by general or special order, regulate further the extent, conditions and manner of making loans by any society or class of societies to its members or other societies.

Restrictions on borrowings.

60. A co-operative society shall receive deposits and loans only to such extent and under such conditions as may be prescribed or as may be specified in the bye-laws.

Restrictions on other transactions with non-members.

61. Save as is provided in sections 59 and 60, the transactions of a society with person other than a member shall be subject to such prohibitions and restrictions, if any, as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER VIII

AUDIT, INQUIRY, INSPECTION AND SURCHARGE

62. (1) The accounts of every society shall, at least once in each co-operative year and by such date as may be prescribed, be audited by the Registrar, or any person authorised by him in this behalf by general or special order in writing. Audit.

(2) In respect of the audit of accounts, the society shall pay such audit fee, if any, and within such time limit, as may be prescribed.

(3) If, at the time of audit, the accounts of a society are not complete, the Registrar, or the person authorised by him under sub-section (1) to audit, may cause the accounts to be written up at the expense of the society.

(4) The audit fee, if any, due from any society or the expenses incurred in writing up the accounts of a society shall be recoverable in the manner as is provided in section 91.

63. (1) The audit under section 62 shall include,—

- (a) a verification of the cash balance, securities and stocks;
- (b) a verification of the balance at the credit of the depositors and creditors and of the amounts due from the debtors of the society;
- (c) an examination of the overdue debts, if any;
- (d) a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the society;
- (e) an examination of the transactions including the monetary transactions of the society;
- (f) an examination of the statement of accounts to be prepared by the managing committee in such form as may be prescribed;
- (g) a certificate of the profits realised; and
- (h) any other matter that may be prescribed.

Nature of audit.

(2) The statement of accounts thus audited, together with the modifications, if any, made therein by the Registrar or any person authorised by him shall be final and binding on the co-operative society.

64. The auditor shall, within 10 days from the date of the completion of the audit, submit to the co-operative society and to the Registrar, together with the statement of accounts audited, an audit report including a statement of,— Auditor's report.

- (a) every transaction which appears to him to be contrary to law or to the rules or bye-laws;
- (b) every sum which ought to have been but has not been brought into account;
- (c) the amount of any deficiency or loss which appears to have resulted from any negligence or misconduct or which requires further investigation;
- (d) any money or property belonging to the society which appears to have been misappropriated or fraudulently retained by any person;
- (e) any of the assets which appear to him to be bad or doubtful; and
- (f) any other matter prescribed.

65. A co-operative society shall be afforded by the Registrar an opportunity of explaining any defects or irregularities pointed out by the auditor, and thereafter the society shall, within such time, and in such manner, as the Registrar may direct, remedy such defects and irregularities and report to the Registrar the action taken by it thereon. Rectification of defects.

Inspection of co-operative societies.

66. The Registrar may, from time to time, inspect a registered society himself or cause it to be inspected by some person authorised by him in this behalf by general or special order.

Inspection of books of an indebted co-operative society.

67. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), on the application of a creditor of a society, an inspection shall be made of the books of the society by the Registrar or by a person authorised by him in this behalf by general or special order in writing.

(2) No such inspection shall be made unless,—

- (a) the Registrar, after giving the society an opportunity of being heard, is satisfied that the alleged debt is a sum then due, and that the creditor has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time; and
- (b) the creditor deposits with the Registrar such sum as security for the costs of the inspection as the Registrar may direct.

(3) The Registrar shall communicate the result of an inspection under this section to the creditor, to a society and to the financing bank, if any, of which the society is a member.

Inquiry by the Registrar.

68. (1) The Registrar may, of his own motion, by himself or by a person authorised by him, by order in writing, hold an enquiry into the constitution, working and financial condition of a society.

(2) An enquiry of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) shall be held on the application of,—

- (a) a society to which the society concerned is affiliated; or
- (b) a majority of the members of the managing committee of the society; or
- (c) not less than one-third of the total number of members of the society.

(3) The Registrar or the person authorised by him under sub-section (1) shall, for the purpose of an enquiry under this section, have powers, namely:—

- (a) he may, notwithstanding any rule or bye-law specifying the period of notice for general meeting of the society, require the officers of the society to call a general meeting at such time and place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof and to determine such matters as may be directed by him, and where the officers of the society refuse or fail to call such a meeting, he shall have power to call it himself; and
- (b) any meeting called under clause (a) shall have all the powers of a general meeting called under the bye-laws of the society and its proceedings shall be regulated by such bye-laws except that no quorum shall be necessary for such meeting.

(4) Where an enquiry is made under this section, the Registrar shall communicate the result of the inquiry to the society, the co-operative society, if any, to which that society is affiliated and to the persons or authority, if any, at whose instance the enquiry is made.

Cost of inquiry.

69. Where an enquiry is held under section 68 or an inspection is made under section 67 on the application of a creditor, the Registrar may apportion costs, or such part of the costs as he may deem fit between the co-operative society to which the society concerned is affiliated, the society, the members or creditors demanding an inquiry or inspection, and the officers or former officers of the society:

Provided that—

- (a) no order of appointment of the costs shall be made under this section unless the society or the person that might be made liable to pay the costs thereunder has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard;
- (b) the Registrar shall state in writing the grounds on which the costs are apportioned.

70. (1) If in the course of an audit, inquiry, inspection or the winding up of a co-operative society, it is found that any person who is or was entrusted with the organisation or management of such society, or who is or has at any time been an officer or an employee of the society, has made any payment contrary to the provisions of this Act, the rules or the bye-laws or has caused any deficiency in the assets of the society by breach of trust, or wilful negligence or has misappropriated or fraudulently retained any money or other property belonging to the society, the Registrar may, of his own motion or on the application of the committee, liquidator, or any creditor, inquire himself or direct any person authorised by him, by an order in writing in this behalf, to inquire into the conduct of such person:

Surcharge.

Provided that no such inquiry shall be held after the expiry of six years from the date of any act or commission referred to in this sub-section.

(2) Where an inquiry is made under sub-section (1), the Registrar may, after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard, make an order requiring him to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof with interest at such rate, or to pay contribution and cost or compensation to such extent, as the Registrar may consider just and equitable.

(3) This section shall apply notwithstanding that act is one for which the offender may be criminally responsible.

71. The Registrar and, subject to any restrictions prescribed, an auditor, arbitrator, or any person conducting supervision or inspection or audit or inquiry shall at all reasonable times have free access to the books, accounts, documents, securities, cash and other properties, belonging to or in the custody of a society.

Access to documents.

72. (1) In exercising the functions conferred on him by or under this Act, the Registrar, the arbitrator or any other person deciding a dispute under section 74 and the liquidator of a co-operative society or person entitled to audit, inspect or hold any enquiry shall have all the powers of civil court while trying a suit, under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of the following matters:—

Powers of civil court.

- (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
- (c) proof of facts by affidavit; and
- (d) issuing commissions for examination of witnesses.

(2) In the case of an affidavit, any officer appointed by the Registrar, the arbitrator or any other person deciding a dispute and the liquidator, as the case may be, may administer oath to the deponent.

CHAPTER IX

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Disputes which may be referred to arbitration.

73. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, if any dispute touching the constitution, management, or the business of a co-operative society arises—

- (a) among members, past members and persons claiming through members, past members and deceased members; or
- (b) between a member, past member or person claiming through a member, past member, or deceased member and the society, its committee or any officer, agent or employee of the society or liquidator, past or present; or
- (c) between the society or its committee and any past committee, any officer, agent or employee, or any past officer, past agent or past employee or the nominee, heirs or legal representatives of any deceased officer, deceased agent, or deceased employee of the society; or
- (d) between the society and any other co-operative society, between a society and liquidator of another society or between the liquidator of one society and the liquidator of another society; or
- (e) a surety of a member, past member or a deceased member or a person other than a member who has been granted a loan by the society under section 60 whether such surety is or is not a member of the society;

such disputes shall be referred to the Registrar for decision and no court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or other proceeding in respect of such dispute.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the following shall be deemed to be disputes touching the constitution, management, or the business of a co-operative society, namely:—

- (a) a claim by the society for any debt or demand due to it from a member, or the nominee, heirs or legal representatives of a deceased member whether such debt or demand be admitted or not;
- (b) a claim by a surety against the principal debtor where the society has recovered from a surety any amount in respect of any debt or demand due to it from the principal debtor as a result of default of the principal debtor, whether such debt or demand is admitted or not;
- (c) any dispute arising in connection with the election of any officer of the society.

(3) If any question arises whether a dispute referred to the Registrar under this section is or is not a dispute touching the constitution, management or the business of a co-operative society, decision, thereon, of the Registrar shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

Reference of disputes to arbitration.

74. (1) The Registrar may, on receipt of the reference of a dispute under section 73,—

- (a) decide the dispute himself; or
- (b) transfer it for disposal to any person who has been invested by the State Government with powers in that behalf; or
- (c) refer it for disposal to an arbitrator.

(2) The Registrar may withdraw any reference transferred under clause (b) of sub-section (1) or referred under clause (c) of that sub-section and decide it himself or refer the same to another arbitrator for decision.

(3) The Registrar or any other person to whom a dispute is referred for decision under this section may, pending the decision of the dispute, make such interlocutory orders as he may deem necessary in the interest of justice.

75. Where a dispute has been referred to the Registrar under section 73 or transferred or referred to arbitration under clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 74, the Registrar, or the person invested with the powers to decide such dispute or the arbitrator, as the case may be, if satisfied on inquiry or otherwise that a party to such arbitration with intent to delay or obstruct the execution of any award that may be made—

Attachment before award.

(a) is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property; or

(b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar;

may, unless adequate security is furnished, direct the conditional attachment, and such attachment shall have the same effect as if made by a competent civil court.

76. The award of the arbitrator or a decision by the Registrar, or the person invested with the power to decide disputes, under section 74 shall not be liable to be called in question in any civil or revenue court.

Finality of award.

77. No suit shall be instituted against a society or any of its officers in respect of any act touching the constitution, management or the business of the society, until the expiration of two months after notice in writing has been delivered to the Registrar or left at his office, stating the cause of action, the name, description and place of residence of the plaintiff and the relief which he claims; and the plaint shall contain a statement that such notice has been so delivered or left.

Notice necessary in suits.

78. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between a society and its creditor or creditors or any class of them, the Registrar, upon an application made in the prescribed manner by the society or by any creditor, or, in the case of a society in respect of which an order has been passed for the winding up thereof, by the liquidator, may order a meeting of the creditors or the class of creditors, as the case may be, to be called, held and conducted in such manner as may be prescribed.

Power of Registrar to sanction compromise between a society and its creditors.

(2) If a majority in number of the creditors, or the class of the creditors, as the case may be, representing claims to three-fourth of the debts due by the society to the creditors, or the class of the creditors, present either in person or by proxy at the meeting, agree to any compromise or arrangement, the compromise or arrangement shall, if sanctioned by the Registrar, upon publication in the prescribed manner, be binding on all the creditors or the class of creditors, as the case may be, and also on the society or, in the case of a society in respect of which an order has been passed for the winding up thereof, on the liquidator and on all persons who have been or may be required by the liquidator under section 81 to contribute to the assets of the society.

CHAPTER X

WINDING UP AND DISSOLUTION OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Order for the winding up of a society.

79. (1) The Registrar may, and if the rules in any case so prescribe, shall, by an order in writing, direct that a co-operative society shall be wound up, if—

- (a) after an inspection has been made under section 66 or section 67 or any enquiry has been held under section 68; or
- (b) on an application made upon a resolution carried by three-fourth of the members of the society present at a special general meeting called for the purpose; or
- (c) on his own motion in the case of a society which—
 - (i) has not commenced working; or
 - (ii) has ceased working; or
 - (iii) has share capital or members' deposits not exceeding rupees one thousand; or
 - (iv) has ceased to comply with any condition as to registration in this Act or in the rules or bye-laws;

he is of the opinion that the society ought to be wound up.

(2) A copy of such order shall be communicated in the prescribed manner to the society and to the financing bank, if any, of which the society is a member.

(3) The order shall take effect—

- (a) where no appeal is preferred under section 94 on the expiry of the time allowed for preferring an appeal; or
- (b) where an appeal is preferred, upon the rejection of the appeal by the appellate authority.

Appointment of a liquidator.

80. (1) Where the Registrar has made an order under section 79 for the winding up of a society, he may, in accordance with rules, appoint a liquidator and may remove him and appoint another in his place and may also fix his remuneration.

(2) The Registrar may, if the circumstances require, appoint by nomination from the share holders of the society, a liquidation committee, comprising not more than seven and not less than three share holders, to advise and assist the liquidator, and may at any time remove any member of the committee or the whole committee and appoint another in his or its place, as the case may be.

(3) A liquidator shall, on appointment, take into his custody or under his control all the property, effects and actionable claims to which the society is or appears to be entitled and shall take such steps as he may deem necessary or expedient, to prevent loss or deterioration of, damage to, such property, effects and claims.

(4) Where an appeal is preferred under section 94, the liquidator shall, pending the decision of the appeal, continue to have custody or control of the property, effects and actionable claims mentioned in sub-section (3) and have authority to take the steps referred to in that sub-section.

(5) Where an order of winding up of a society is set aside in appeal, the property, effects and actionable claims of the society shall re-vest in the society.

Powers of liquidator.

81. (1) Subject to any rules made in this behalf, the whole of the assets of a society in respect of which an order for winding up has been made, shall vest in the liquidator appointed under section 80 from the date on which the order takes effect and the liquidator shall have power to realise such assets by sale or otherwise.

(2) Such liquidator shall also have power subject to control of the Registrar—

- (a) to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings on behalf of the society by the name of his office;
- (b) to determine, from time to time, the contribution (including debts due) to be made or remaining to be made by the members or the past members or by the estates, or nominees, heirs or legal representatives of deceased members or by any officers or former officers, to the assets of the society;
- (c) to investigate all claims against the society and, subject to the provisions of this Act, to decide questions of priorities arising between claimants;
- (d) to pay claims against the society including interest upto the date of winding up according to their respective priorities, if any, in full or rateably, as the assets of the society may permit; the surplus, if any, remaining after payment of the claims being applied in payment of interest from the date of such order of winding up at a rate fixed by him, but not exceeding the contract rate in any case;
- (e) to calculate the cost of liquidation and to determine by what person and in what proportions they are to be borne;
- (f) to determine whether any person is a member, past member or nominee of deceased member;
- (g) to give such directions in regard to the collection and distribution of the assets of the society as may appear to him to be necessary for winding up of the affairs of the society;
- (h) to carry on business of the society so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same;
- (i) to make any compromise or arrangement with creditors or persons claiming to be creditors or having or alleging to have any claim present or future whereby the society may be rendered liable;
- (j) to make any compromise or arrangement with any person between whom and the society there exists any dispute and to refer any such dispute to arbitration;
- (k) after consulting the members of the society, to dispose of the surplus, if any, remaining after paying the claims against the society; and
- (l) to compromise all calls or liabilities to calls and debts and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, present or future, certain or contingent, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the society and a contributory or alleged contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the society and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the assets or the winding up of the society on such terms as may be agreed and take any security for the discharge of any such call, liability, debt or claim and give a complete discharge in respect thereof.

82. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, the contribution assessed by liquidator shall rank next to debts due to the Government or to any local authority in order of priority in insolvency proceedings.

Priority of contribution assessed by liquidator.

Liquidator to deposit the books and submit a final report.

83. When the affairs of a society have been wound up, the liquidator shall make a report to the Registrar and deposit the records of the society in such place as the Registrar may direct.

Power of Registrar to cancel order of winding up or of registration of co-operative society.

84. (1) The Registrar may cancel an order for the winding up of the society in any case where, in his opinion, the society should continue to exist.

(2) In any other case, the Registrar shall, after considering the report of the liquidator, if any, order the registration of the society to be cancelled.

Bar of suit in winding up and dissolution matters.

85. Save in so far it is expressly provided in this Act, no civil court shall take cognizance of any matter connected with the winding up or dissolution of a society under this Act and when a winding up order has been made, no suit or other legal proceeding shall lie or be proceeded with against the society except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as he may impose.

Disposal of surplus assets.

86. After all the liabilities including the paid up share capital of a cancelled society have been met, the surplus assets shall not be divided amongst its members but they shall be devoted to any object or objects described in the bye-laws of the society and when no object is so described to any object of public utility, determined by the general meeting of the society and in case of failure of the general meeting to determine the aforesaid object within the prescribed period, they may be assigned by the Registrar either in whole or in part to any or all of the following:—

- (a) an object of public utility of local interest;
- (b) a charitable purpose as defined in section 2 of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890;
- (c) financing bank until such time as a new society with similar object is registered in the same or neighbouring area when with the consent of the Registrar such surplus may be credited to the reserve fund of such new society.

CHAPTER XI

EXECUTION OF AWARDS, DECREES, ORDERS AND DECISIONS

Enforcement of charge.

87. Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter IX or any other law for the time being in force but without prejudice to any other mode of recovery provided in this Act, the Registrar or any person subordinate to him empowered by the Registrar in this behalf, may, on the application of a society, make an order directing the payment of any debt or outstanding demand due to the society by any member or past or deceased member by sale of the property or any interest therein which is subject to a charge under section 54:

Provided that no order shall be made under this section unless the member, past member or the nominee, heir or legal representative of the deceased member, has been served with a notice in the manner prescribed.

Execution of orders.

88. (1) Every order made by the Registrar under sub-section (2) of section 70 or under section 87, every decision or award made under section 74 and every order made under section 94, shall if not carried out—

- (a) on a certificate signed by the Registrar, or any person authorised by him in this behalf, be deemed to be a decree of a civil court and shall be executed in the same manner as decree of such court; or
- (b) be executed according to the law and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue:

Provided that an application for the recovery in such manner of any sum shall be made—

- (i) to the collector and shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Registrar or by any person authorised by him in this behalf;
- (ii) within twelve years from the date fixed in the order, decision or award and if no such date is fixed, from the date of order, decision or award, as the case may be; or
- (c) be executed by the Registrar or any other person subordinate to him empowered by the Registrar in this behalf, by the attachment and sale or sale without attachment of any property of the person or a society against whom the order, decision, or award has been obtained or passed.

(2) Any private transfer or delivery of, or encumbrance or charge on, property, made or created after the issue of the certificate of the Registrar or any person authorised by him, as the case may be, under sub-section (1), shall be null and void as against the society on whose application the said certificate was issued.

89. The orders of the liquidator under section 81 shall be executed according to the Act and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

Execution of orders of liquidator.

90. The Registrar or any person empowered by him in this behalf shall be deemed, when exercising any power under this Act for the recovery of any amount by the attachment and sale or by the sale without attachment of any property, or when passing any orders on any application made to him for such recovery or for taking a step in aid of such recovery; to be civil court for the purposes of Article 136 of the 1st Schedule to the Limitation Act, 1963.

Registrar or person empowered by him to be civil court for certain purposes.

91. (1) All sums due from a co-operative society or from an officer or member or past member of a society as such, to Government, including any costs awarded to Government under any provision of this Act may, on a certificate issued by the Registrar in this behalf, be recovered in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

Recovery of sums due to Government.

(2) Sums due from a society to Government and recoverable under sub-section (1) may be recovered, firstly, from the property of the society; secondly, in the case of a society the liability of the members of which is limited, from the members, past members or the estates of deceased members, subject to the limit or the liability; and thirdly, in the case of other societies, from the members, past members, or the estates of the deceased members:

Provided that the liability of past members and the estates of deceased members shall in all cases be subject to the provisions of section 31.

CHAPTER XII

JURISDICTION, APPEAL AND REVIEW

92. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings whatever shall lie against the Registrar or any person subordinate to him or acting on his authority in respect of anything in good faith done or purporting to have been done under this Act.

Bar of jurisdiction of courts.

93. (1) Save as provided in this Act, no civil or revenue court shall have any jurisdiction in respect of,—

- (a) the registration of a co-operative society or its bye-laws or of an amendment of its bye-laws;
- (b) the removal of a committee;
- (c) any dispute required under section 73 to be referred to the Registrar; and
- (d) any matter concerning the winding up and the dissolution of a society.

(2) While a co-operative society is being wound up, no suit or other legal proceedings relating to the business of such society shall be proceeded with or instituted against the liquidator as such, or against the society or any member thereof, except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as he may impose.

(3) Save as provided in this Act, no order, decision or award made under this Act shall be questioned in any court on any ground whatsoever.

Appeal.

94. (1) An appeal shall lie under this section against,—

- (a) an order of the Registrar made under sub-section (4) of section 8 refusing to register a society;
- (b) an order of the Registrar made under sub-section (4) of section 11 refusing to register an amendment of the bye-laws of a society;
- (c) an order of the Registrar directing an amendment under section 12;
- (d) a decision of a society refusing to admit any person as a member of the society who is otherwise duly qualified for membership under the bye-laws of the society;
- (e) a decision of a society expelling any of its members;
- (f) an order of the Registrar removing the committee of a co-operative society under section 39; or
- (g) an order under section 35(2) disqualifying a member or officer of being a member of the committee;
- (h) an order made by the Registrar under section 69 apportioning the cost of the enquiry held under section 68 or an inspection made under section 67;
- (i) any order of surcharge under section 70;
- (j) any decision or award made under section 74;
- (k) an order made by the Registrar under section 79 directing the winding up of co-operative society;
- (l) any order made by the liquidator of a society in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 81;
- (m) any order made under section 75.

(2) An appeal against any decision or order under sub-section (1) shall be made within sixty days from the date of decision or order,—

- (a) if the decision or order was made by the Registrar, to the Government; or
- (b) if the decision or order was made by any other person, to the Registrar.

(3) No appeal shall lie under this section from any decision or order made by the Registrar in appeal.

95. (1) The State Government may call for and examine the record of any inquiry or inspection held or made under this Act or the proceedings of the Registrar or any person subordinate to him or acting on his authority, and may pass thereon such orders as it thinks fit. Review and revision.

(2) The Registrar may at any time —

(a) review any order passed by himself; or

(b) call for and examine the record of any inquiry or inspection held or made under this Act or the proceedings of any person subordinate to him or acting on his authority, and if it appears to him that any decision, order or award or any proceedings so called or should for any reason be modified, annulled or reversed, may pass such order thereon as he thinks fit:

Provided that, before any order is made under clause (a) or clause (b), the Registrar shall afford to any person likely to be affected adversely by such order, an opportunity of being heard.

96. Where an appeal is made under section 94 or where the Government or the Registrar calls for the record of a case under section 95, the appellate authority or the Government or the Registrar, as the case may be, may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory orders, including an order of stay, pending the decision of the appeal or revision as the authority or the Government or the Registrar, may deem fit. Interlocutory orders.

(4) Every rule under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of not less than fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the sessions aforesaid, the Assembly makes any modification in the rule or decides that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

At present there are two different Acts relating to co-operative societies in force in Himachal Pradesh. One is the Himachal Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1956, which is in force in the areas comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately before the 1st November, 1966, and the other is the Punjab Co-operative Societies Act, 1961, which is in force in the areas added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966. With a view to bringing about uniformity, it has been considered necessary to enact one unified law on the subject for the whole of Himachal Pradesh, and this Bill seeks to achieve the object.
